AP SHENKIN,

A New National Song,

for the

PIANO FORTE,

The Words & Music by

J. PARRY.

Ent.d at Sta.rs Hall. Price 1.s

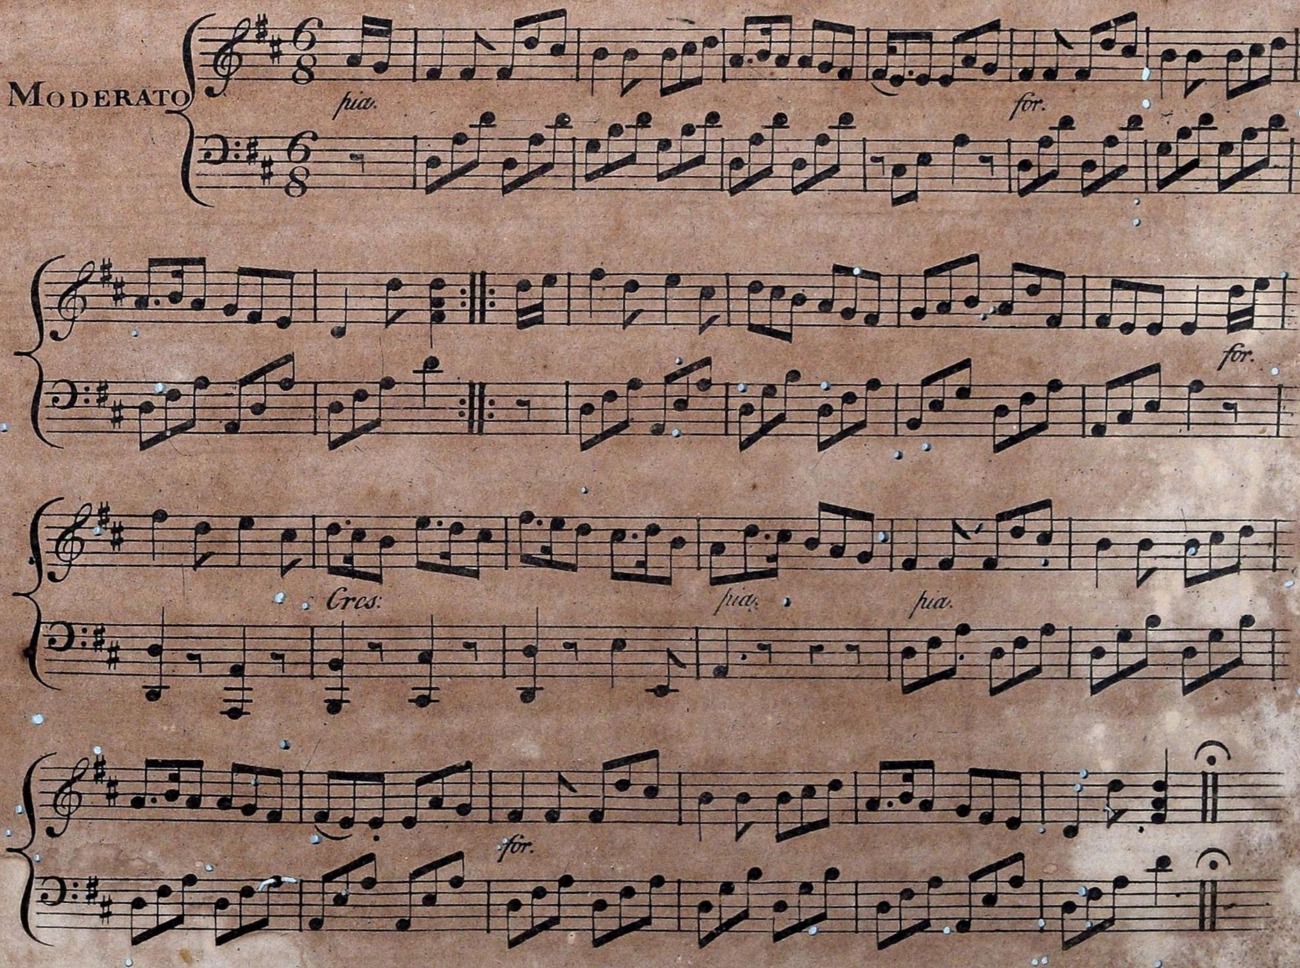
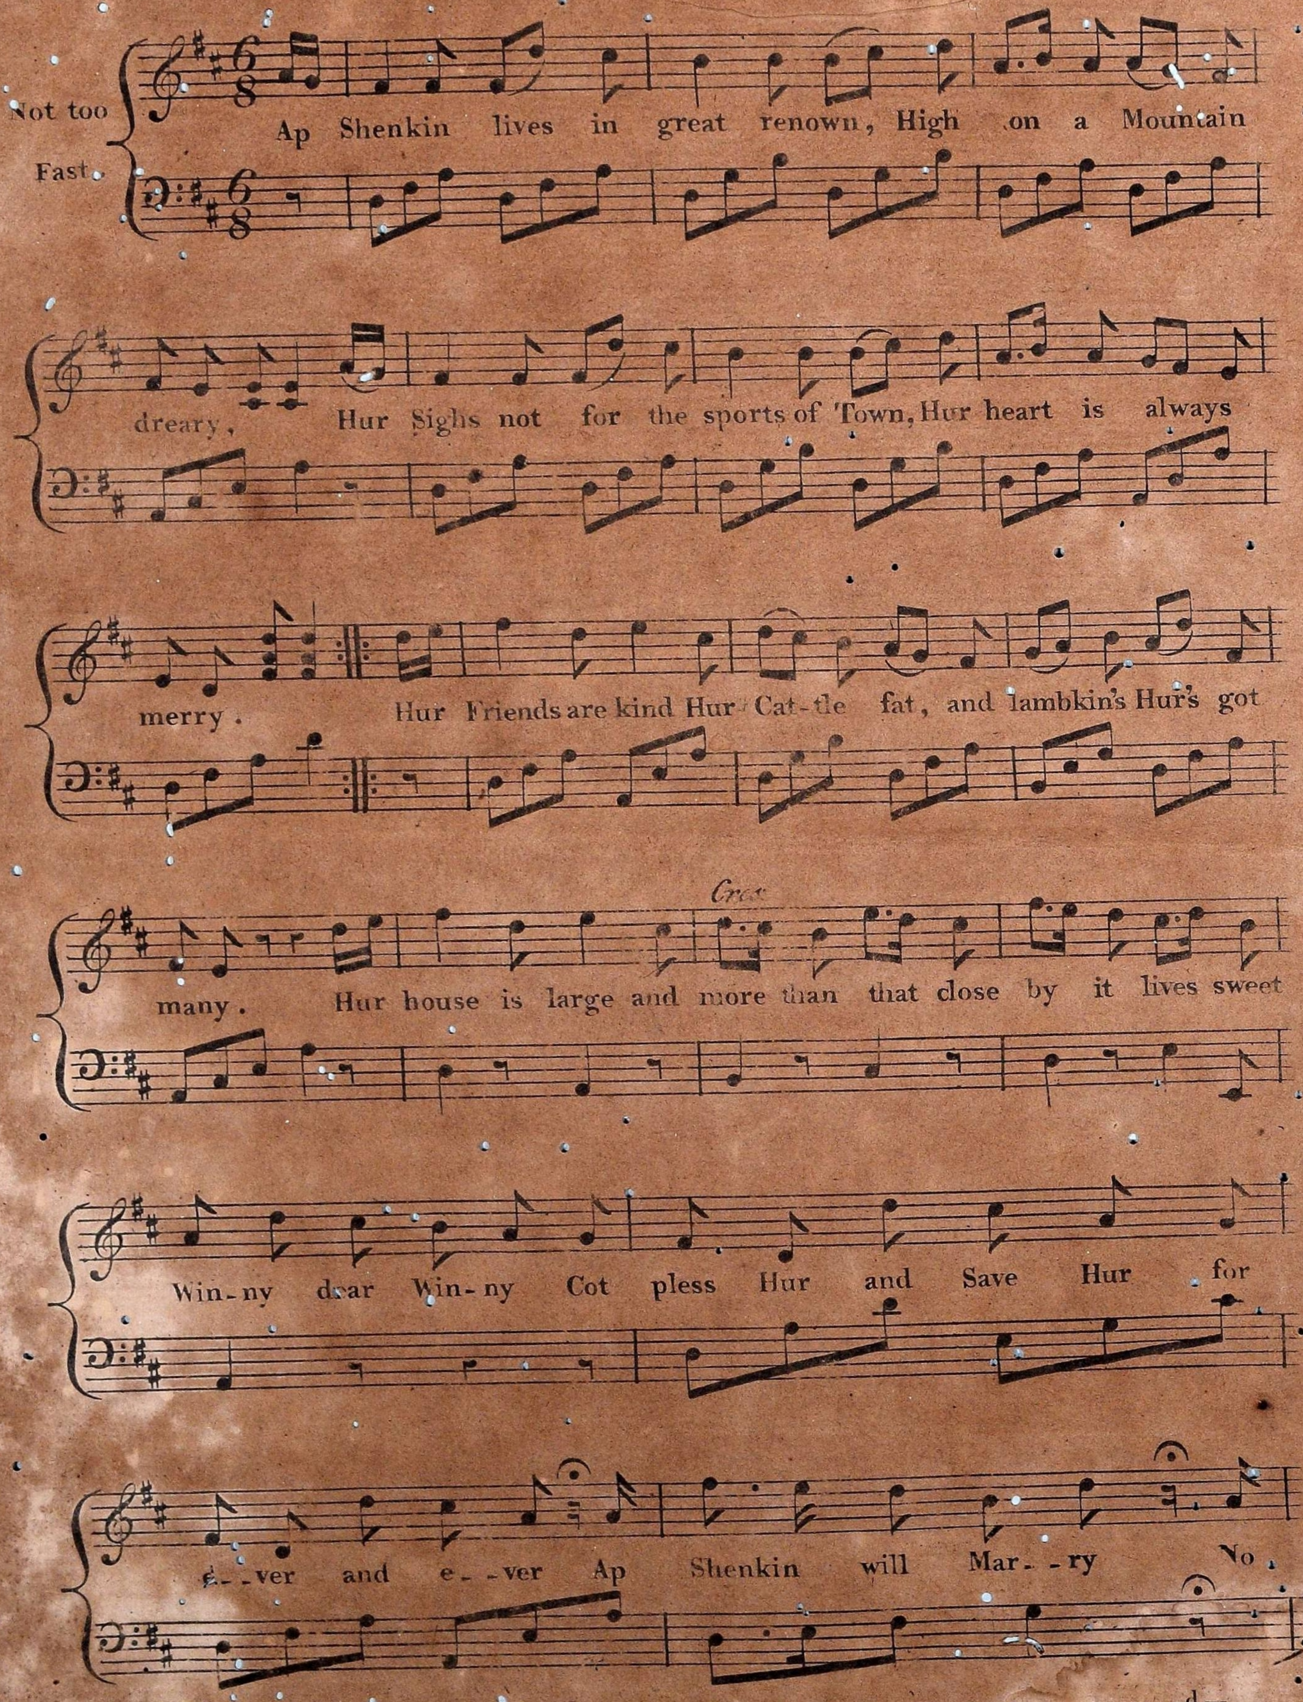
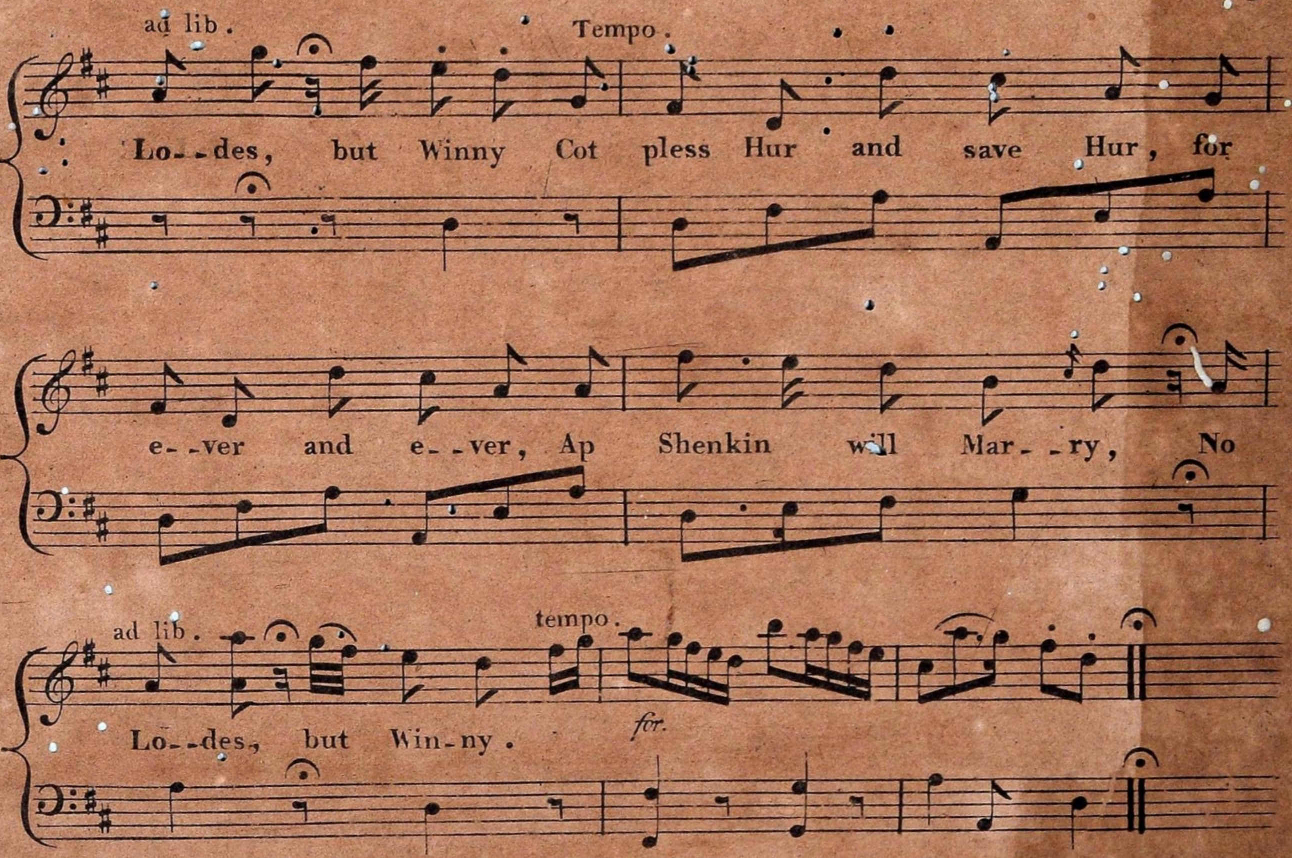
London, Printed & Sold at Bland & Wellers, Music Warehouse, 23, Oxford Str.t



NB. F. on Violins is the best Key, when this Air, is Danced.



NB. Lodes, signifies a Young Woman.) "Sion ap Siani," which occurs in the 2d Verse, means John Jane's Son —— And is thus pronounced —— Shōn ap Shanny. ——



2.

In rural sports Hur days are spent,
With neighbour Sion ap Siani,
Hur Meals are plest with sweet content,
Hur Farm's as good as any.
Hur Father died and left Hur Heir,
To all his Lands and Money,
Hur greatest Joy would be, to share,
Hur Wealth with lovely Winny — Dear Winny.
Cot pless Hur &c.

3.

Hur to the Wars will pravely go,
Or spend Hur last pright Guinea,
To check and crush a Daring Foe,
Who'd rob Hur of sweet Winny.
An Ancient Priton ne'er will yield,
To France, or Spain, or Any,
Ap Shenkin pold will prave the Field,
And Fight for George and Winny — Dear Winny.
Cot pless Hur and save Hur,
For ever and ever,
No Corsican Ninny,
Shall rob Hur of Winny. —

Gwaith Cymro.